Communications Media Faculty Position

POSITION

The Communications Media Department at Indiana University of Pennsylvania seeks candidates to fill one or two assistant professor, tenure-track positions beginning Fall 2009, pending availability of funds. The department has 13 full-time faculty members serving its undergraduate and graduate programs including a new Ph.D. in Communications Media and Instructional Technology. IUP is a doctoral-granting institution that offers excellent salary and benefits.

QUALIFICATIONS

Ph.D. in Mass Communications or related field is required at time of appointment. Candidates should demonstrate professional experience; evidence of potential to conduct a program of scholarly research and creative activities; commitment to effective advisement and mentoring of undergraduate and graduate students; and be prepared to teach bachelors, masters, and doctoral courses in mass communications, broadcasting and media relations. The ability to teach additional courses such as radio production, media ethics or oral communication is highly desirable as is the willingness to manage a college radio station as part of their load. Candidates must communicate effectively and perform well during the interview, which may include a teaching demonstration. All applicants must be work eligible.

HOW TO APPLY

Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, names of three references, transcripts and evidence of teaching ability to Dr. B. Gail Wilson, Chair Communications Media Search Committee, 121 Stouffer Hall, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Indiana, PA 15705. Review of applications will begin February 27, 2009 and continue until the position is filled.
